

The Autism Spectrum: Social Skills, and Students with Asperger Syndrome

November 15 - 16, 2007

Cleveland, OH

Nov 15

Social Skills Training & Frustration Management, with Jed Baker, Ph.D.

Specific, user-friendly strategies and techniques for providing relevant social skills instruction to children and teens with ASD will be shared at this workshop. Enjoyable socialization methods are emphasized so individuals may experience success and desire to build skills. Social deficits affect life at home, school and eventually in the workplace. Conference participants will learn both highly beneficial strategies that can be used across a variety of settings and routines; and practical and effective solutions to assist 'typical' peers, family members and professionals to become more understanding, accepting and engaging of those with social difficulties. Dr. Baker is the author of four autism books, with "The Social Skills Picture Book for High School and Beyond" being the most recent.

Strategies for Students with Asperger Syndrome, with Diane Adreon, Ph.D.

This workshop will focus on specific strategies to increase the likelihood of providing a successful experience for students with Asperger Syndrome (AS) in school. Workshop participants will (a) gain an understanding of the challenges of students with AS in the school setting; (b) learn specific strategies to reduce the likelihood of problematic behavior by pro-actively engineering a supportive environment, and (c) learn practical strategies to address common academic, social, organizational, and behavioral issues. Dr. Adreon is the co-author of two books: "Simple Strategies that Work!" and "Asperger Syndrome and Adolescence."
