

“Autism Across the Spectrum”

Crystal Lake, IL ♦ November 5 - 6, 2009

Holiday Inn Crystal Lake

Thursday
Nov. 5

"The Way I See It" and "Developing Talents: Careers for Individuals with Asperger's and High-Functioning Autism," with Temple Grandin, Ph.D.

From her innovative book, "The Way I See It," Temple Grandin will get down to the real issues of autism- the ones parents, teachers and individuals on the spectrum face every day. She offers helpful do's and don'ts, practical strategies and try-it-now tips, all based on her "insider" perspective and a great deal of research. After lunch Temple will cover her book "Developing Talents." This remarkable instruction is essential for individuals on the spectrum, along with anyone who teaches, cares for or employs someone on the spectrum. She shows how to apply her guidelines, suggestions and examples to career development in real life. A question and answer period will be held after the last break and will cover a multitude of issues concerning the autism spectrum.

Friday
Nov. 6

No More Meltdowns: Handling Challenging Behaviors & Teaching Social Skills, with Jed Baker, Ph.D.

Students on the autism spectrum often present with difficulty regulating their feelings and interacting socially. This workshop describes how to handle meltdowns and design effective behavior plans to prevent these moments and reduce frustration and anxiety. The second part of the presentation details strategies to motivate students to learn, ways to teach social skills, how to generalize skills into the natural setting and increase acceptance and tolerance from peers. Information will be imparted through lecture, interactive exercises, and video clips.
